

Dear Fellow Democrats,

The 25th Annual Dining with Democrats happens Thursday, March 30.

Bexar County Commissioners Court

Judge Peter Sakai will be our keynote speaker.

Dining with Democrats is the first major Democratic event of the year. The event supports NEBCD's mission to Engage an Educated Electorate and Get Out the Vote.

Your donation to NEBCD stays in Bexar County and serves our local candidates, voters, and issues that affect us directly in Bexar County.

We'll spice up the evening with heavy hors d'oeuvres and wine, live music, a silent auction, and a live auction with some very special items.

It's a time to enjoy being a Democrat. I hope all Bexar County Democrats will take this opportunity to get to know our officials, candidates and activists more personally. And I hope our officials, candidates and activists will take this opportunity to get an early start attracting voters and volunteers by attending and being identified as a major supporter of Bexar County Democratic politics.

Democratically yours,

Anne Wiatrowski

The success of all candidates--national, state, city and county candidates--depends on local grassroots organizations--your neighbors who volunteer to register voters, knock on doors, make phone calls, write postcards and spend countless hours performing other basic tasks to Get Out the Vote. To continue these operations, NEBCD puts on two major fundraising events each year. All donations go to educate voters all year round and to Get Out the Vote in Bexar County during election season.
